BOB ROHRLACK: RESPONSE TO THE U. S. CHAMBER OF COMMERCE FINDINGS

JACKSON, Miss. – From Robert J. Rohrlack, Jr., executive director of the Mississippi Development Authority, concerning the U. S. Chamber of Commerce statements regarding Mississippi’s business climate.

“It’s unfortunate that the U. S. Chamber of Commerce has unjustly singled out Mississippi on an issue that is of national concern. This issue affects more states than just Mississippi.”

“At a time when Mississippi is at the forefront of economic development, the U. S. Chamber has attempted to place a tremendous obstacle in our path.”

“However, Mississippi is getting national recognition for the creation of jobs, as Site Selection magazine and others have stated repeatedly.”

“The U. S. Chamber should concentrate on national solutions to improve our national economy and provide help in job creation. That’s business advocacy.”
