

For Immediate Release
September 14, 2001

Contact: John Sewell
601-359-2916

Governor Asks for Support of “New York State World Trade Center Relief Fund”

Jackson, MS – Governor Ronnie Musgrove is encouraging Mississippians to help support the newly created New York State World Trade Center Relief Fund. The fund will support emergency response to the World Trade Center site as well as victim support.

“This is a time for us to give what we can to those in desperate need,” Musgrove said. “The people of Mississippi are a giving people, and I know they will do their part in helping our friends in New York during this difficult time.”

Donations may be sent to: New York State World Trade Center Relief Fund, P. O. Box 5028, Albany, NY, 12205. Donations may also be made by calling 800-801-8092, but mailed donations are encouraged due to heavy telephone traffic.

“The tremendous outpouring of support from across the nation has been a true inspiration to all New Yorkers as we work to recover from Tuesday’s outrageous terrorist attack,” New York Governor George E. Pataki said. “We welcome all pledges of support to the newly established New York State World Trade Center Relief Fund, which will provide critical support for our ongoing disaster relief and victim assistance efforts. The support we receive from the compassionate and patriotic residents of Mississippi will never be forgotten by the people of New York.”