(Jackson, MS) – Governor Ronnie Musgrove has appointed Brad Stevens to the Mississippi Forestry Commission, representing the 1st Congressional District. Stevens will serve through June 30, 2006.

“I am proud to know Brad Stevens will be representing northeast Mississippi on the Forestry Commission,” Musgrove said. “His experience and knowledge in the timber industry bring tremendous insight to the work of the Commission, and I look forward to working with him.”

Stevens currently works as Vice President of Security Bank of Amory. He maintains tree farming interests in Monroe County.

Stevens was confirmed by the Mississippi Senate on April 4, 2002.
