Governor Appoints Donald Green to the Mississippi State Tax Commission

Jackson, MS – Governor Ronnie Musgrove has appointed Donald Green of Clarksdale, Mississippi, as a member of the Mississippi State Tax Commission for a six-year term beginning July 1, 2002, and ending June 30, 2008.

“Donald Green has demonstrated his commitment to his profession as an accountant, and he will be a tremendous asset on the board,” Musgrove said. “I appreciate his willingness to serve, and I know he will work hard for Mississippi’s taxpayers.”

Green has degrees from Coahoma Community College and Delta State University. For the past 21 years, he has served as Chief Financial Officer of the Mississippi Delta Council.

Green is a member of the Mississippi Association of Public Accountants and the National Society of Tax Professionals. He has served as a board member for the Delta Association for Rural Initiatives, the Clarksdale/Coahoma County Airport, the Clarksdale/Coahoma Library and the Friendship Community Federal Credit Union.

Green is married to the former Nelia Collins. They have two sons, Donald, Jr., and Adam Deleanor.
