

A Proclamation
By
Governor Ronnie Musgrove

WHEREAS, the National Panhellenic Conference was established on May 24, 1902 at a meeting in Chicago, Illinois and will celebrate its Centennial anniversary on October 12, 2002; and

WHEREAS, the twenty-six member groups of the National Panhellenic Conference contribute to the academic achievement and mission of colleges and universities; and

WHEREAS, the alumnae and collegiate chapter members support their campus and area communities through service and philanthropic endeavors; and

WHEREAS, members of women's fraternities foster life long friendships through chapter and Panhellenic activities and impact the lives of others as alumnae advisors and mentors; and

WHEREAS, as a result of the opportunities for growth and development provided by the collegiate and alumnae fraternity and Panhellenic experience, members assume roles as productive citizens and make significant contributions to society; and

WHEREAS, the Centennial year will be a significant occasion for the three and one half million members of the National Panhellenic Conference in the United States and Canada; and in the State of Mississippi.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Ronnie Musgrove, Governor of the State of Mississippi, hereby proclaim October 12, 2002, as

THE NATIONAL PANHELLENIC CONFERENCE
100TH ANNIVERSARY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Mississippi to be affixed.

DONE in the City of Jackson, February 21, 2002, in the two hundred and twenty-fifth year of the United States of America.

RONNIE MUSGROVE
