Governor Musgrove Appoints Jolee Childs Hussey to Mississippi Library Commission

(Jackson, MS) – Governor Ronnie Musgrove has named Jolee Childs Hussey to the Mississippi Library Commission for a five-year term commencing July 1, 2002 and ending June 30, 2007.

“Jolee Childs Hussey has been serving Mississippi through her work as a librarian for many years,” Musgrove said. “Her 32 years of knowledge and experience will be invaluable in the work of this commission.”

Hussey is currently a media specialist and librarian in the Oxford School District. She has also worked as the librarian for the Chemistry Library at the University of Mississippi. Hussey is the originator and coordinator of “Afternoon at the Public Library”, sponsored by the Board of Trustees of the Oxford/Lafayette County Public Library. She has served as the National “Focus on Reading” committee chairman for Mississippi.

After earning B.A.E. and M.S.S from the University of Mississippi, Hussey completed her M.L.S in Library and Information Science from the University of Mississippi.
