Governor Musgrove Appoints Angela Pannell to the Mississippi State Board of Public Accountancy

(Jackson, MS) – Governor Ronnie Musgrove has appointed Angela Pannell of Pass Christian to the Mississippi State Board of Public Accountancy. She will be representing the state at large for a five-year term ending December 31, 2007.

“Ms. Pannell will be an asset with a wealth of skill and knowledge to the Mississippi State Board of Public Accountancy,” said Musgrove. “She will perform her job well as she serves.”

Pannell is currently a Certified Public Accountant and works at Charles B. Benvenuti CPA, PA, in Bay St. Louis. She is also employed as treasurer at RAKE Land and Timber, Incorporated, in Pass Christian. Pannell is a member of Hancock County Exchange Club and is at-large member of the Administration Board of Main Street United Methodist Church of Bay St. Louis. She attended Mississippi State University and received her masters degree at the University of New Orleans.
