Governor Musgrove Appoints Dr. Charles Lowell Jones to the Mississippi State Board of Optometry

(Jackson, MS) – Governor Ronnie Musgrove has appointed Dr. Charles Lowell Jones of Indianola to the Mississippi State Board of Optometry. He will be representing the Second Congressional District for a 5-year term commencing June 20, 2003 and ending June 20, 2008.

“Dr. Jones brings a broad range of experience to the Mississippi State Board of Optometry,” said Musgrove. “I am confident he will represent the public well.”

Jones has served on the Board and is very knowledgeable of the rules, regulations, and laws for optometry in Mississippi. He currently owns Delta Eye Center in Indianola, where he practices. Jones has been a member of the Indianola Rotary Club since 1976, and he is also a member of Northwest Central Optometry Society, Mississippi Optometry Association, and Southern Council of Optometry. Jones studied biology and chemistry at Mississippi Delta Community College as well as Delta State University. He has degrees from the Southern College of Optometry.
