Governor Musgrove Appoints Dr. Gregory Timberlake to the Emergency Medical Advisory Council

(Jackson, MS) – Governor Ronnie Musgrove has appointed Dr. Gregory Timberlake of Jackson to the Emergency Medical Advisory Council. He will be representing the Central Trauma Care Region for the unexpired term ending July 1, 2006.

“Dr. Timberlake will serve the Emergency Medical Advisory Council well with his knowledge and skills,” said Musgrove. “I know he will successfully fulfill his position.”

Dr. Timberlake has been practicing medicine for 20 years and currently practices with University Surgery Associates, PLLC. He attended medical school and received a Bachelor of Arts from The University of Virginia. Dr. Timberlake is a Fellow of the American College of Surgeons, a member of The American Association for Surgery Trauma, The Southeast Surgical Congress, The Central Surgery Association and The Society for Critical Care Medicine. He also holds a Commission in the U.S. Navy Reserve as Captain, and is currently assigned as Director of Health Services for the Navy Readiness Command Mid-Atlantic.
