Governor Musgrove Appoints Gary Self to the Mississippi State Board of Nursing

(Jackson, MS) – Governor Ronnie Musgrove has appointed Gary Self of Madison to the Mississippi State Board of Nursing. He will be representing a nurse in clinical practice for a four-year term beginning July 1, 2003, and ending July 1, 2007.

“The Mississippi State Board of Nursing will benefit from Mr. Self’s experience and dedication,” said Musgrove. “I know he will whole-heartedly perform his job.”

The Mississippi State Board of Nursing has various duties that include, regulation of the practice of nursing for the protection of the public, licensure of all qualified registered nurses and practical nurses, and certification for qualified nurse practitioners.

Self currently works at the University of Mississippi Medical Center. He is a former president of the Mississippi Association of Nurse Anesthetists and is a current member of the Alpha Eta National Scholastic Honor Society. He is a member of Grace Chapel Presbyterian Church and is married with three children. Self is a graduate of Kosciusko High School, Millsaps College, Hinds Junior College and the University of Mississippi Medical Center.
