Governor Musgrove Appoints Gloria Dansby-Giles to Mississippi State Board of Examiners for Licensed Professional Counselors

(Jackson, MS) – Governor Ronnie Musgrove has appointed Gloria Dansby-Giles of Jackson to the Mississippi State Board of Examiners for Licensed Professional Counselors representing the Second Congressional District for a term beginning June 30, 2003, and ending June 30, 2006.

“Gloria Dansby-Giles has dedicated her professional life to counseling, and I applaud her eagerness to serve,” Musgrove said. “Her many years of experience in the counseling profession will benefit the Board as it serves the people of Mississippi.”

Dansby-Giles presently serves as a professor of counseling at Jackson State University. She holds various licenses and certifications in the area of counseling such as a Licensed Professional Counselor, a National Certified Counselor, a National Certified School Counselor and a Master Career Counselor. Dansby-Giles holds various memberships in associations such as the American Counseling Association, the Association for Counselor Education and Supervision, the Association for Multicultural Counseling and Development, the Mississippi School Counselor Association and the Mississippi Association for Counselor Education and Supervision.
