

For Immediate Release

July 18, 2003

Contact: John Sewell

601-359-2916

Governor Musgrove Appoints Jody Coleman to the Mississippi State Board of Architecture

(Jackson, MS) – Governor Ronnie Musgrove has appointed Jody Coleman, of Florence, to the Mississippi State Board of Architecture. He will serve a five-year term ending June 1, 2008.

“Mr. Coleman has worked in this state for over 20 years and has over 22 years of experience in the field of architecture,” said Musgrove. “He has shown his commitment to this state and to his chosen profession. His expertise and experience will enhance the Mississippi State Board of Architecture.”

Coleman is presently a partner and member of the Board of Directors for Cooke Douglass Farr Lemons/ Ltd. He is a registered architect in the state of Mississippi with NCARB licensing. Coleman has participated in Leadership Jackson and Leadership Rankin. He is a member of the following: City of Jackson Chamber of Commerce, Rankin County Chamber of Commerce, University of Southern Mississippi –School of Science and Technology Advisory Committee, and Chairman of the Personnel and Building Committee at Gunter Road Baptist Church in Florence, Mississippi.

Mr. Coleman received his Bachelor of Science degree in Architectural/ Construction Technology from the University of Southern Mississippi and he received a Bachelor of Architecture degree from the University of Tennessee.

###