Governor Musgrove Appoints Kendall Quinn. to Mississippi Board of Animal Health

(Jackson, MS) – Governor Ronnie Musgrove has appointed Billy Graves, Jr. of Jackson to the Mississippi Board of Animal Health. He will represent the Mississippi Livestock Markets position until July 31, 2005

“Mr. Graves has been the owner of Quinn Cattle Company, Inc. since 1940,” said Musgrove. “His expertise in buying and selling cattle will definitely be an asset to the Mississippi Board of Animal Health.”

The Mississippi Board of Animal Health is charged with controlling, eradicating, and preventing the introduction and spread of contagious and infectious animal diseases.
