Governor Musgrove Appoints Mark Duncan as District Attorney

(Jackson, MS) – Governor Ronnie Musgrove has appointed Marc Duncan of Philadelphia, to serve as District Attorney for the Eighth Circuit Court District. Duncan will serve until January 8, 2004.

“His experience makes him well qualified to combat, investigate, and prosecute crime,” said Musgrove. “Mr. Duncan has a proven track record as a prosecutor and is a dedicated public servant.”

Mr. Duncan has 15 years of experience as an attorney, including 13 years as the Assistant District Attorney for the Eighth Circuit Court. Duncan is a member of the Mississippi Bar Association, Neshoba Bar Association, National District Attorney’s Association, and the Mississippi Prosecutor’s Association. He received his Bachelors degree and his law degree from the University of Mississippi.

Mr. Duncan is married to Joni T. Duncan, the father of one, and an active member of First United Methodist Church.
