Governor Musgrove Proclaims “National Bible Week”

(Jackson, MS) – Governor Ronnie Musgrove has proclaimed November 23-30, 2003, as “National Bible Week” to encourage all Mississippians to read the Bible and to acknowledge the significant place the Bible has had in American life

“The Bible has been a constant source of moral and spiritual guidance for many people throughout the centuries and even today the Bible continues to provide inspiration, hope, and comfort for millions of Americans today, said Musgrove.

For 63 years men and women of many faiths have joined together with the National Bible Association to celebrate National Bible Week and to encourage Americans to read the Bible.
