

A Proclamation
By
Governor Ronnie Musgrove

WHEREAS, the Scottish Highland Games of Mississippi celebrate the tradition of honoring their Scottish ancestry; and

WHEREAS, since 1988, the Scottish Highland Games of Mississippi have continued that tradition and celebrated the remembrance of those who helped to settle our great state; and

WHEREAS, the Scottish Highland Games of Mississippi unites people across the world of Scottish descent; and

WHEREAS, the games and cultural events not only celebrate the Scottish roots of many Mississippians but also provides scholarships for pipers and highland dancers perpetuating the ancient arts and crafts; and

WHEREAS, the games are celebrated by people of all ages and all walks of life;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Ronnie Musgrove, Governor of the State of Mississippi, hereby proclaim March 23, 2002 as in the State of Mississippi and encourage our citizens to join in celebrating and recognizing the contributions of Scottish ancestry in our State and in our nation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Mississippi to be affixed.

DONE in the City of Jackson, January 16, 2002, in the two hundred and twenty-fifth year of the United States of America.

RONNIE MUSGROVE
