

MEMORANDUM

October 23, 2003

TO: Governor Musgrove
FROM: Shannon
RE: Blues Commission

Attached are your remarks for the announcement of the Blues Commission in Indianola on Friday. 7 of the members will be there at the Courthouse. They will be on the stairs on behind you. Lee Ann and I will meet you at the Courthouse.

Fred Carl will not be able to attend because his mother has fallen and broken her hip. Robert Moore will not be able to attend, he is in Russia. Those that will be there are in your speech. We have not been able to get in touch with Sen. John Horhn or Morgan Freeman (He is out of the country).

At the end of the speech, hand the executive order to Sen. David Jordan for the commission to keep (LAM and I will have the executive order for you when you get there)

Thanks!
