

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Thursday, December 27, 2001

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

7 die in Miss. holiday wrecks

Proposal on judge exclusion under fire

Editorials

Redistricting: No court plan likely to bring smiles

Trust fund: Tobacco money needs protecting

Recession: Good time for development pitch

Trial lawyers not 1st, only players

Throw 'bums' out, if map isn't done!

2001 marked by major hits, many misses

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

Meridian Star Meridian Mississippi

• In my own words

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi

Tuck remains in Mississippi's catbird seat

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi

Editorial for Wednesday, Dec. 26, 2001

Charlie Mitchell: State not serious about liquor laws

Magnolia Report

The Clarksdale Press Register

Quitman County flooding nears '91 levels

The Bolivar Commercial

Officials try to convince Tyson Foods to stay here

The Greenwood Commonwealth Greenwood, Mississippi

Tobacco funds being looked at to aid Medicaid

State officials out to lure more industry

New law could shake up schools

Mississippi Business Journal

Santa visits Mississippi courtesy of Nissan project

MBJ Editorial

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, Tenn.

The New York Times

The Washington Post

When Is a Catfish Not a Catfish?

Some Want Smallpox Shots Now