

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Thursday February 22, 2000

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

Educators: Teacher's arrest horrifying

Senate OKs insurer tax cut bill

Musgrove OKs bill for hospitals

State ACLU director on leave

Editorials

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

Schools to close for flag vote

State has shortage of tetanus vaccine

Mississippi retirees count on new lawsuit

Column: U.S. Chamber vs. Mississippi will dramatize need for reform

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

Legislature may set aside more money than needed

Panel kills bill to let optometrists prescribe drugs

Desoto Appeal Desoto, Mississippi

Tax repeal on storage headed to governor

Stash of tobacco cash proves tempting

Desoto Times Today, Hernando, Mississippi

Musgrove will sign bill to repeal warehouse tax; at least 10 businesses have expressed interest in relocating to DeSoto County if tax is repealed

Teachers learn what industries need from recruits

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi

None

Meridian Star, Meridian Mississippi

Kemper supervisors say budget crunch reason for layoffs at jail

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Flag vote turnout uncertain, secretary of state says

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi

USM's Fleming: Mississippi is the place to be

Dearing says no to appointing highway commissioners

Sid Salter: Adults at age 18, but kids till age 21

stateline.org