

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Tuesday February 11, 2000

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

Bill offers property tax break for some

Free tax software offer expanded

Madison County shifts into high gear

Editorials

Despite lunatic fringe, keep flag

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

Bill faces long odds

Bill would free sick prisoners

Colleges wonder if they face emergency

House OKs property tax relief

Editorial: Lawmakers must end retaliatory raises in hunting/fishing fees

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

Senate votes to redefine violent crimes

Bills dead and alive

House bill will help education, workforce

Desoto Appeal

County officials disagree on flag vote

Unanimous House votes to increase homestead exemption

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Colleges may delay crisis plan

Current state flag belongs in museum

Meridian Star Meridian, Mississippi

Grant help available for high energy costs

Conference organized, presented by students, open to public

Enterprise-journal.com McComb, Mississippi

Editorials for Monday, Feb. 12, 2001

Charley Reese: Remember law of supply, demand

Letters to the editor for Monday, Feb. 12, 2001

stateline.org

Georgia's New State Flag Finally Finished
Mississippi College Board Hearings On Tap