

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Tuesday, September 4, 2001

The Clarion Ledger (Jackson, MS)

Ayers 'fairness hearing' opens

Editorials

State budget: Pressure mounting on lawmakers

Trust fund: Attorney general should be heeded

Ayers: Lawsuit's final rounds to start today?

No room for fat in state's budget

Lott: Redistricting panel must avoid 'mischief'

Miss. eyes future industry

College Board makeup not fair

Editorials

Social Security: Political landscape greatly altered

Lobbying law: Crackdown needed on scofflaws

Leave tobacco trust fund alone

State workers not treated right

Nissan can better 'Hospitality State'

No redistricting deadline set

Blueprint inked to help gulf area

Pharmaceutical industry foots bill for Medicaid study

Sun Herald (Biloxi, MS)

County stung by Simpson decree

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal (Tupelo, MS)

High on H2O: Ripley's EcoWater begins \$10 million expansion

BOBBY HARRISON: Barbour's blue blood might lose rural white vote

CHARLIE MITCHELL: Mississippi - lawsuit 'mecca' - gains headlines

Slicing Up The Pie: Legislative Budget Committees face difficult dedicions

Mississippi's Budget

State has to cough up money for health care

Commercial Appeal (Memphis, TN)

Musgrove may call session to aid catfish farmers

Natchez Democrat (Natchez, MS)

'Hard-nosed' decisions face state lawmakers

Hattiesburg American (Hattiesburg, MS)

Local GOP representative opposes Ayers settlement

'Chaos' defines Democratic Party

Meridian Star (Meridian, MS)

• John Robert Smith for governor? — Bynum

Sealed by court decree

Enterprise Journal (McComb, MS)

Guard preps for mission
Editorial for Thursday, Aug. 30, 2001

Greenwood Commonwealth (Greenwood, MS)

Musgrove considers calling a special legislative session to deal with catfish labeling

Better way to fill judge vacancies

Musgrove plans full schedule on trip to Japan

Musgrove says he wants to ease state insurance woes

Legislators prepare for 2003 budgeting

Clarksdale Press Register (Clarksdale, MS)

Former chairman Levingston joins exodus from Democrat Party leadership

Bolivar Commercial (Cleveland, MS)

The Washington Post (Washington, DC)

The New York Times

Magnolia Report

Jere Nash testifies in union election trial

Associated Press Wire