

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Wednesday, September 12, 2001

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

PERS hit by double whammy

Rains put brakes on interchange projects

Editorials

Terrorist war : Freedom cannot be first casualty

Price gouging : Those exploiting tragedy despicable

Reaction : A time for war and a time for prayer

SID SALTER - Terrorist attack will unite nation as one people

Gas-supply rumors unsettle motorists

State feels attack's impact

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

State stiffens security against attacks

MDOT seeks record $947M budget

Panic strikes at gas pumps

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

Meridian Star Meridian Mississippi

Airports close, military bases on alert in Mississippi

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Mississippi military installations increase security measures

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi

stateline.org

The Clarksdale Press Register

The Bolivar Commercial

Magnolia Report

Grenada Dam sealed

The Greenwood Commonwealth Greenwood, Mississippi

Syphilis campaign works wonders

Mississippi Business Journal

State regaining normalcy, leaders investigating gauging

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, Tenn.

The New York Times
Gas Prices Raised After Attack

The Boston Globe
Consumers line up for gas amid supply fears

The Washington Post
Gas Prices Shoot Up; Drivers Line Up

AP Wire
MS--PERS
MS--Attacks-Security
MS--Attacks-Gasoline URGENT
MS--Mspj Budget TOPS
MS--Attacks-Musgrove \(Tops\)
MS--3rd News Agenda
MS--Attacks-Musgrove \(Tops\)