

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Friday, September 07, 2001

The Clarion Ledger (Jackson, MS)

Fund plan for Ayers will work, Ford says

MDA: Base consultant needed

$140,000 to fund drug courts

Agency budget pleas continue

Editorials

City budget: Time to tighten belt, order freeze

Drugs: Parents need to talk with kids

Mexico: Bush the one for immigration law

Democratic Party on the wrong path

Sun Herald (Biloxi, MS)

Unemployment Rate Climbs to 4.9 Percent

State needs base-closing adviser, MDA says

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal (Tupelo, MS)

Budget Committee hears large, expected request from education

Commercial Appeal (Memphis, TN)

Natchez Democrat (Natchez, MS)

Read Our View

Hattiesburg American (Hattiesburg, MS)

State needs 'zero budget' approach

Meridian Star (Meridian, MS)

Enterprise Journal (McComb, MS)

Sid Salter: At least you can admire his spunk

Greenwood Commonwealth (Greenwood, MS)

Education vital part of state's future

AG, economic developers seek more state money

Clarksdale Press Register (Clarksdale, MS)

Will slumping economy derail Nissan plant?

State should scrap archaic wine laws

Bolivar Commercial (Cleveland, MS)

The Washington Post (Washington, DC)

4% of U.S. Homes Are Multigenerational

The New York Times

Multigenerational households grow

Magnolia Report

Associated Press Wire

MS--Base Closings-Mspi

MS--La-Z-Boy Layoffs