

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Thursday, September 13, 2001

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

State rainy day fund drying up up

Gasoline panic dies down

Editorials

Terrorism

Tax hike

Water fees

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

Moore may expand price gouging probe

Former Gov. Mabus reminded of Saudi horror

Meridian Star Meridian Mississippi

Air Guard units dispatched

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi

Bill Minor: More prison space than prisoners

The Bolivar Commercial

Motorists lapse into panic buying of gasoline

Magnolia Report

Hyundai may be coming to Mississippi

ED: Casino tax for education, teachers a safe bet

The Greenwood Commonwealth Greenwood, Mississippi

Gas prices go up this morning in city

Mississippi Business Journal

Mississippians receive nearly $2 million in SBA loans

stateline.org

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

The Clarksdale Press Register

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, Tenn.

The New York Times

The Boston Globe

The Washington Post

AP Wire

MS--Medicaid Budget

MS--Attacks-Gas Prices