

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Wednesday, August 15, 2001

The Clarion Ledger (Jackson, MS)

Proposed state-paid defense system argued as unfair

State leads nation in disabled elderly

Miss. prosecutors seeking pay hike

Editorials

State workers need raises, too

Lobbyists: Spending law should be reviewed

Public defenders: State needs it, however court rules

Lumber: Tariffs help loggers, not consumers

Board selection process ethical?

MMCC diligently supports military bases in all 8 counties

Sun Herald (Biloxi, MS)

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal (Tupelo, MS)

Benjamin grossed \$606K for prison work

Musgrove moves state's capital to Ripley - for a day

Commercial Appeal (Memphis, TN)

Mississippi should pay for defense attorneys, counties say

Natchez Democrat (Natchez, MS)

Hattiesburg American (Hattiesburg, MS)

Enterprise Journal (McComb, MS)

Emily Wagster: Plenty of ideas for College Board

Greenwood Commonwealth (Greenwood, MS)

Trust fund tussle

The Washington Post (Washington, DC)

Hats Off to the Governors

The Shreveport Times (Shreveport, LA)

Column: New style of leader could help revive Louisiana economy