

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Monday April 2, 2001

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

Historic district enjoys some upgrades, but makeover slow

Choctaw chief's portrait unveiled

Students prepare to talk with space station crew

Governor pushes new flag at church

Book conference features the works of Wright, Tan

Vicksburg, exhibit can be double draw

USM staffer gets National Science grant

Artist's latest painting a first

Businesses brace for break

Editorials

I-55 South needs attention quickly

SUNDAY

Jackson rolls out red carpet for monarchs

Can they conquer the great divide?

MDOT exec had unrevealed felony

Hall honors Mississippi music greats

Agreement with Louisiana, like it or not, looks good for

Mississippi

Is being king lots of fun? You bet your crown it is

Poultry plant may be rebuilt

Millsaps readies to inaugurate 10th president

When Spain ruled

Candidates for MDOT slot surface

Brooks' appointment as DHS chief among 79 confirmed by

Senate

Disaster assistance deadline April 24

Nissan holding groundbreaking for plant Friday

WorldCom settles MCI suit for $90M

Editorials

'Railroading' could occur in flag issue

Miss. lumber industry facing socialism

Don't rewrite history to justify your position on flag issue

© The Clarion Ledger
MARTIN HALL
SUNSET

SPRING FORWARD

FALL BACK

SATURDAY

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

Schools in Gulfport, Biloxi to close early
Biloxi and Gulfport schools close early for Black Springbreak
Long Beach may buy into sewer
Flock of kids takes first flight
Timber import deal expires; new one sought
Waters, Lewis, Hooker enter Hall of Fame
Editorial:

Sunday

Mississippi welcomes Spanish royalty
The Power of One
Beach event precursor to Springbreak
'Sine die!' Lawmakers turn up heat and run
Budget cuts hurt state employees, union says
Mississippians share role in state's future

Saturday

Override!- Legislature gives Musgrove vetoes a shove
Fiery day on Coast
Cities estimate security costs at \$600,000
Flag question didn't ruffle gentlemanly actor Freeman

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

Water works -- Little-known agency plays big role in region

Desoto Appeal Desoto, Mississippi

Teamwork brings legislative victories
Senate's Mr. Inside becomes outsider as chief
High-tech aid may speed police job

Desoto Times Today, Hernando, Mississippi

Olive Branch looks to capitalize on expansion at Distribution Center
Robertson: Civic Center bill will be victory for taxpayers
'In God We Trust' law violates separation of church and state

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi

EDA's funding remains potential trouble spot

Meridian Star, Meridian Mississippi

Royal flourish — Spanish King, Queen make history
Judge concerned about house arrest program
People, together, save Magnolia tree

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Volunteers dig to uncover ancient history
First witness may testify today in Moody trial
Millsaps' new leader realizes her dream
Program offers funds for shelters
U.S. 98 access plan must pass
WHLT Channel 22 news station throws in towel due to low ratings

Bill benefits married couples
New bill would assist veterans
Residents must support new flag

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi

A winning style: Library gets attention

Spanish king, queen visit Mississippi

Editorial: Public, private school contests can help state

Donald V. Adderton: State's enemy is illiteracy, not flag

stateline.org

None