

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Thursday, July 19, 2001

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

Fleming decision due today

New auto industry drives group

Ex-justice expected to serve as interim president at MUW

Budget increase brings Louisiana's surplus to grand total of $1,726

Budget crunch forces Tenn. to boost tuition a record 15%

Albertson's to close 165 stores, cut jobs

Editorials

Nissan jobs: State's economy can use the jolt

Since: We can't count on national growth

Flag burning: Offensive? Yes! Outlaw it? No!

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

Southern poorly represented on College Board, critics say

Power company to request rate hike

Public interest vs. privacy

Merger failure is good news

Albertson's making cuts after costly acquisition

Residents ambivalent about Fleming

Grant will fund jellyfish study

Legislature has one fund that seems off-limits to budget cuts

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

Musgrove defends calling of special session

College Board to decide Fleming's USM fate today

BancorpSouth earnings dip 10 percent

Albertson's to close 165 stores

SID SALTER: Musgrove's 'malarkey' aimed at change of subject

Meridian Star Meridian Mississippi

• Musgrove attempting to save face — Salter

• Don't count on quadrants in Mississippi redistricting — Elliott Jr.

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi

Editorial for Wednesday, July 18, 2001

- Black Caucus speaks out for Mississippi

Bill Minor: Lawmakers' expense accounts rich

The Clarksdale Press Register

Good for Black Caucus for bucking Jackson

The Greenwood Commonwealth Greenwood, Mississippi
Nissan names first suppliers

Mississippi Business Journal <http://www.msbusiness.com/breaking.php>
WorldCom, AOL Time Warner form marketing alliance
Native Mississippian presented highest civilian honor