

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Monday, July 2, 2001

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

Voting fervor of youth dies out

Jurors say large awards were fair

Next thing you know, Tom Benson will want to move Ol' Man River

MSU students build winner (Kim)

Tobacco prevention education praised

Editorials

Party politics: Democrats shatter; GOP in upswing

Capitol feud?: Lawmakers, gov need reconciling

Energy: Republicans abandoning president

Accusers and admirers: Ayers judge steers suit

Gov. calls for party unity

Fierce job game rather tame

New laws kick in today

GOP's Barbour is livin' large

Editorials

Teacher pay: Local districts struggling to fill gap

DUI: Alcohol vulnerable as Big Tobacco?

Key civil rights lawyer returns to Mississippi

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

School leaders wary of state test

Musgrove urges Democrats to reconcile

"You're Dick Cheney?"

Mississippi viewed as ripe for tort reform

New laws cover massage, elderly, babies

New school laws take effect today

Parchman chief planning change

EPA asked to review fish advisory issued for Delta

Party officials at odds

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

Musgrove calls for party reconciliation

LLOYD GRAY: Of rumors, divorces and double standards

Revenue figures down $206M

Desoto Times Today, Hernando, Mississippi

DeSoto County leads Mississippi in sales growth More of this story

Meridian Star Meridian Mississippi

• Montgomery Institute: Strategic thinking, issues analysis, consensus building

• So this is 'Unprecedented goals, unparalleled progress'?

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

New law gives authorities a tool to fight animal cruelty

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi

Saints continue to haggle over money, facility

Lawmakers say Saints are using Miss.

New laws in effect July 1

Jack Ryan, July 1, 2001: Saints' worst problem is high prices

Wyatt Emmerich: Legal foxes guarding hen house?

Charlie Mitchell: Signs on walls won't fix schools stateline.org

Mississippi County Known For Huge Verdicts

Mississippi Gov's Remarks Unfair, House Speaker Says

Mississippi Teachers Placed In Industries They Teach

Mississippi Test Criticized By School Leaders

Mississippi To Encourage Doctors To Prescribe Generic Drugs