

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Monday, July 16, 2001

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

Help wanted: Teachers

Fleming critics, backers vocal

New legal help system set

Drugs, weapons seized in raids

Editorials

U.S. budget: Federal surplus is dwindling away

Bail bonds: Madison County should say pay up

Farm Bill: Wetlands program worth saving

Musgrove planning mansion meetings

5-year upgrade plan to usher in new high-speed rail system

Ayers plan still under attack

Land fight in national spotlight

Editorials

Campaign reform: House may get another stab at it

Tupelo: Outstanding city lauded by peers

Kyle: 'Majesty' maestro deserves honor

MDOC forms board to boost victim aid

Time will tell if state hurt by vote

Editorials

Education: Cooperation critical for times ahead

Poverty: State clawing its way from bottom

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

More guards may join overtime suit

Keep Fleming campaign growing

Coast lawmakers criticize Musgrove

Musgrove invites Legislature to mansion

Southern lawmakers want catfish labeled by country

Stennis airport waits in silence

Lott: Condit should resign if unfaithful

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

A solid choice Mills has potential to be outstanding federal justice

Desoto Appeal Desoto, Mississippi

$18 million in federal funds will help county ease growing pains

Desoto Times Today, Hernando, Mississippi

Meridian Star Meridian Mississippi

• Mississippi prepared to avoid base closures — Lott

• Action necessary now on patients' bill of rights — Pickering

• Mississippi education priorities under a microscope

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

USM supporters: Fleming's status impacts campaign
Governor: It's time to mend fences

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi

Troops prepare for Bosnia mission
Lawmakers' advice for Musgrove
Felony record a good reason to oust teachers
Charlie Mitchell: New state law can save some lives

stateline.org

Mississippi Educators Say More Teachers Are Needed Mississippi Workers Sue For Overtime Pay

The Clarksdale Press Register

The Bolivar Commercial

The Greenwood Commonwealth Greenwood, Mississippi

Thompson stuck with reformers

Mississippi Business Journal <http://www.msbusiness.com/breaking.php>

Nissan responds to Jackson's accusations of "economic profiling"

Committee approves $171M for Miss. projects

USDA appoints state FSA committee members