

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Tuesday, July 17, 2001

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

PEER: Jail costs too high

Legislative Black Caucus defends Nissan land deals

Student leaders backing Fleming

2 more teachers lose licenses

Population boom called imminent

Editorials

Education: Teaching vacancies show the score

Star Wars: Testing fuels China-Russia pact

Ayers: Best and only plan is on the Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

Coast could lose 4-year school if Fleming is fired

Shipbuilding loan plan in trouble

Report finds excess costs in regional jails

Caucus: State has been fair in Nissan deals

In Fleming, USM has a good leader with vision

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

PEER cites excessive costs at prisons

BOBBY HARRISON: Salary 'trigger' repeal lies in its symbolism

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Tuck will meet with local business leaders

Odds stacked against USM presidency

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi

Schools run on hard luck for teachers

Session won't affect governor's Gloster visit

Mississippi group seeks medical lawsuit reform

Editorials for Monday, July 15, 2001 -- NAACP tones down 'boycott'; Mississippi 'used' stateline.org

Mississippi Educators Say More Teachers Are Needed

Mississippi Legislative Black Caucus Defends Nissan Land

Deals

Mississippi's Jail Costs Too High, Says Watchdog Group

The Clarksdale Press Register

Congressional redistricting ideas plentiful

The Bolivar Commercial

Great River Bridge project may receive extra funds

The Greenwood Commonwealth Greenwood, Mississippi
Board suspends licenses of two Mississippi teachers
Groups call for medical suit reform

Mississippi Business Journal <http://www.msbusiness.com/breaking.php>
Nissan to announce first suppliers for Madison County plant
PEER finds unnecessary costs at correctional facilities