

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Monday, June 11, 2001

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

Miss. native Truly to be honored (Kim)

Social Security sets up 'I' office

Southaven boy, 12, in national bake-off (Kim)

Teacher recruitment still a struggle

Nissan building for tomorrow

Overhaul put auto giant back on road

Editorials

Death penalty: Mississippi's still in the slow lane

Business: New Miss. Power chief a player?

Crop dusters: Board's 'self-policing' doesn't fly

We've had plenty of politics; how about some inspiration?

Lott still 'spinning' on wheel like Dylan

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

Casinos need to help get the word out about the Coast

Editorial:

Budgetary 'quick fix' abdicates responsibility State Rep. George Flagg's proposal that Gov. Musgrove's emergency "rainy day" spending authority be doubled to $100 million has merit, but for the wrong reasons.

Columnist Minor reflects on changes

Book compiles half-century of experiences

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

Nissan supply shake-up will help profits

Desoto Appeal Desoto, Mississippi

Mid-South Commentary

Herring hopes to restart Miss. GOP

Desoto Times Today, Hernando, Mississippi

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi

Meridian Star, Meridian Mississippi

● In my own words...

First and foremost, Mississippi's senator — Lott

● Is there a dime's worth of difference?

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

N.Y. embraces Mississippians

Lawmakers target DHS director

Forrest County Industrial Park receives $270,000 grant

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi

Mississippi one of five states in OxyContin project

24 school systems get Barksdale grants
AutoZone to close stores

stateline.org

Mississippi Still Struggling With Teacher Recruitment
Mississippi's Slow-Moving Capital Cases May Pick Up Steam