

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Monday, June 18, 2001

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

Another party leader may go

Editorials

Energy: Case builds for more investigation

Faculty pay: Task force study eagerly sought

Poison: State agency continues its neglect

Out-of-state cases, in-state headaches

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

Lott could support suing HMOs

Editorial:

Use the rainy-day fund to keep the state afloat.

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

Tyre wins state merchant award (Kim)

A computer in every classroom

Prison costs -- Report adds fuel to Corrections debate

Desoto Appeal Desoto, Mississippi

Desoto Times Today, Hernando, Mississippi

Lott May Support Patients' Rights

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi

Plan leads Moore to Natchez

Meridian Star, Meridian Mississippi

Father, daughter pull together at State Games (Kim)

• Seeking the truth in DHS housecleaning

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Taxpayers deserve full accounting

Should Gov. Ronnie Musgrove call a special session to remove the provision that requires Mississippi's economy to grow 5 percent annually before teachers can be guaranteed pay raises?

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi

Editorials for Friday, June 15, 2001

Legislators often run show in Mississippi; Ideology at work

Charlie Mitchell: DHS hearings mostly about politics

stateline.org

Mississippi Debate Over Tort Reform Ongoing

Mississippi Democrats May Lose Another Party Leader

Mississippi Gets Out-Of-State Cases, In-State Headaches

Mississippi Nurses Could Drop By 20%

Mississippi Prison Study Finds \$6 Million

