

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Tuesday, June 19, 2001

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

More insurance firms exit Miss.

Editorials

Jackpot justice: Logical rules must be put in place

Senate fight: 'Patients Bill of Rights' gets hearing

Bush trip: Mission accomplished for president

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

Ex-U.S. attorney battles state's casino jackpot tax

Teacher shortage intensifying

Public can draw own maps of districts

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

Conservative prudence: Will a slowing economy require a taxation

Desoto Appeal Desoto, Mississippi

Democrats' selection of Fondren causes conflict

Desoto Times Today, Hernando, Mississippi

It's time we all got on the same page about reading

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi

Read Our View Teacher shortage needs to be solved?

Meridian Star, Meridian Mississippi

Five gold medals (Kim)

• Striking a blow for freedom — Bynum

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Mississippi must follow Texas' lead

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi

stateline.org

Mississippi Debate Over Tort Reform Ongoing

Mississippi Democrats May Lose Another Party Leader

Mississippi Democrats May Lose Another Party Leader

Mississippi's First-Year Teachers Tell Stories In Book