

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Monday, June 25, 2001

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

Aviation board faces criticism, turbulence

Ghosn praised for turnaround

Editorials

Public/private: Everyone benefits when kids play

Teachers: Opening the ranks is necessary

Boom, Boom...: John Lee Hooker's legacy lives on

Miss. School of Arts to open in '03

Dems see another 4 step down

District battle lines drawn

Competing proposals, competing objectives

Editorials

Death penalty: System is broken; state can fix it

Judiciary: Panel must help restore dignity

Editorials

Divorce: Break-ups do have implications

Clyda Rent: MUW has thrived under leadership

Car insurance: Jackson police ticketing motorists

MUW prepares for change

Musgroves' divorce saddens Batesville

Ghosn makes history as CEO

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

Democratic exodus continues

Editorial:

Mississippi is gaining a terrible reputation for jackpot justice. The courtroom is supposed to be the place where only the law matters.

Too many trials, too little time

No ponies? Mississippi's losing

Bill could thwart Indian casinos

Musgroves ask for sealed divorce

Divorce can hinder careers, but doesn't have to end them

MUW president's critics hail move

Appeals court loses Payne

Lawmakers struggle with redistricting maps

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

Mixed feelings about Rent's resignation at MUW

Nobody wants to take inmates from counties

Growth in inmate population slows

The W looks ahead

Meridian Star, Meridian Mississippi

The Musgrove split

• State Games a good draw

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Task force to begin examination of Mississippi's voting process

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi

Private prison workers sue for overtime pay

Editorials for Friday, June 22, 2001 Governors have rocky marriages...

stateline.org

States Fall Short On Tobacco Prevention Efforts

Mississippi Aviation Board Faces Turbulance

Mississippi Democratic Party Exodus Continues

Mississippi Gov Files For Divorce

Mississippi Gov's Political Future May Be Hurt By Divorce

Mississippi Lawsuits Hurting Health Care, Doctors Say