

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Tuesday, June 26, 2001

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

Parchman under watch

Bush honors Miss. students (Kim)

Gulf Coast offers highest teacher pay supplement

Miss. gas storage site sought

Another SUV in Nissan lineup

Editorials

Death penalty: Make the appointment, Governor

AIDS: Humanitarian effort has two fronts

Tax hike: Rankin increase offset by growth

Subdivisions: Rankin land use plan a good step

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

Teachers find best bonuses on Coast

International Paper will ax 3,000 jobs, restructure

Tribe's casino plan shows field isn't level

Firm would store gas in salt dome

State seeks to avoid 'Florida goof-up'

Adventures put judge in spotlight

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

Casino groups plot strategy

Districts offer supplements for state teacher paychecks

Prison policies: Inmate populations require re-evaluation

DANNY McKENZIE: Musgroves' divorce brings back familiar feelings

Desoto Appeal, Hernando, Mississippi

300 losing jobs here as IP cuts 3,000

Desoto Times Today, Hernando, Mississippi

The top of Mississippi is better than it looks

Meridian Star, Meridian Mississippi

County teams capture State Games gold

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Is new law working? Who knows?

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi

McRae lives life on the edge

Freedom Riders planning 40-year reunion in Jackson

Editorials for Monday, June 25, 2001

Gov. Ronnie Musgrove and Attny. Gen. Mike Moore

Tim Kalich: Mississippi fertile place for lawyers

stateline.org

Mississippi Bridge Programs Give Students Head Start On College

The Times, Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Mississippi teaches nation about higher education