

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Thursday March 1, 2000

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

WorldCom lays off 6,000

Organizers have highest hopes for Spain exhibit

Ebbers could face litigation over cuts

Bill for storm damage hits \$28M, rising

Grand jury indicts 5 in license conspiracy

Conviction upheld by state court

Editorials

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

COG meeting open to public

Lost seat means more people per congressman

MDOT answers complaints, will repair crossing

Appointments, casino roads top MDOT plan changes

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

Lanier Clothes to cut jobs

Bill would ratify name change of Tupelo arena

State News Briefs

Desoto Appeal Desoto, Mississippi

Governor's signature ends warehouse tax

Eminent domain a battlefield for Nissan holdouts

Desoto Times Today, Hernando, Mississippi

**State Insurance commissioner explains 'Wal-Mart theory'**

Meridian Star, Meridian Mississippi

Mississippi House passes arts center bill

Bill would allow nurse practitioners to prescribe controlled substances

A crushing load of debt could drag Mississippi's economy for decades

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Conference studies 'moment of silence' bill

Lawmakers kill gaming measure

Proposal to lower blood-alcohol level dies in House committee

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi

**Sid Salter: Mississippi is in a state of denial**

stateline.org