

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Monday March 5, 2000

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

Millions in child support languish

Nissan plant will be a real light heavyweight

Lawyer: Ayers proposal no good

Dale hopes Frankel suit will turn up lost funds

Editorials

Focus on prisoner rehab is too much

Use tobacco fund for veterans care

Mississippians need a new attitude, not a new state flag

Teachers charged in fraud turn in licenses

Judge sides with landowner

Editorials

Jackson's image affects, reflects entire state of Mississippi

Teacher search 'deplorable' act

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

Letters:

A journey to save state flag

Dropout bill met by chorus of boos

State revenue slide slows, but no one is celebrating

Storm victims eligible for tax-filing extension

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

Less red ink fails to buoy lawmakers

Letters to the Editor

Desoto Appeal Desoto, Mississippi

Desoto Times Today, Hernando, Mississippi

Bill would require Mississippi public schools to display 'In God We Trust'

Legislators need to drop idea of lowering legal dropout age

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi

Truancy bill clears up law's contradictions

Agency has more aid for energy bills

Legislators have 'no plan B' for teacher pay raise

State union officials sound off
Majesty of Spain showcases shared history with Mississippi
Teacher pay raise issue remains a tricky mess

Meridian Star, Meridian Mississippi
Doppler radar still provokes discussion

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi
Weekend storms drench Pine Belt, state
Governor should sign parole bill
Legislature must limit cell towers
State doesn't need eight universities

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi
Patrolman cleared of liability in fatal wreck

stateline.org
Mississippi Gov Praises Assistance To Storm Victims
Mississippians To Fight Eminent Domain On Project