

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Friday March 30, 2001

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

Senate overrides MDOC funding bill veto

Musgrove rips jail rationale

Flurry of activity precedes Spanish royalty's Jackson visit

Painting Pushmataha

Stock reply: Markets will be back, and big, too

Battle over federal bench to include 2 Miss. judges

State hospital gets accredited

Prescription savings for seniors lauded

Arts program to get \$400,000

Lextron lands contract to upgrade fighter jets

Delphi announces job cuts

Tyson puts brakes on \$3.2B IBP purchase

Editorials

Nissan land deal was handled poorly

Current flag sends the wrong message

'Real' Mississippians will choose state flag, not celebrities

Let's put 'real' needs ahead of 'ghost' priorities

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

Budget battle flares

Lott predicts bill's passage by weekend

Letters:

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

Musgrove's vetoes start with prisons

TVA to hold land planning meeting in luka tonight

BILL MINOR: Money might come down to who guessed right

Desoto Appeal Desoto, Mississippi

Districts could be added to historic register

Chemical spill stalls U.S. 61 traffic

Senate overrides veto of prisons budget

Desoto Times Today, Hernando, Mississippi

Land of the Levee; Delta farmer helps to protect region from flooding with work on the Mississippi River Levee

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi

Legislature approves EDA measure

County not likely to lose judge

Meridian Star, Meridian Mississippi

For those who died — Confederate dead to be honored

Development District gets \$400k in federal funding

Philadelphia, MDOT working to fix traffic problem

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Judge blocks life sentence

Christians must stand for Christ

New flag won't change history

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi

Brookhaven Packard plant not in Delphi closure plans

Musgrove veto pen wipes out corrections bill

Editorials for Friday, March 30, 2001

Letter to the editor for Friday, March 30, 2001

stateline.org

None