

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Monday March 12, 2000

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

Farmers cheered by winter rains

Budget decisions, deadline at hand

Editorials

School vouchers no threat to Miss.

Don't indict those who value the past

New flag's design won't inspire vote

Sen. Cochran vital to state, nation

Teachers must be allowed to be the authority in classroom

Openness is a matter of attitude, not just the details of state law

Decline in metro numbers explored

Tourists modern-day royalty

Tourism: A $6B boost to state

Minister, son denied bond in sex abuse case

$12M awarded in flying blade lawsuit

Auditor: DHS not following its rules

State official: U.S. meat safe from mad cow

MDOT exec Long retiring this month

Few registering for flag vote

MSU, N.Y. center partner to improve children's health

Web site maps cancer cases

Time running out for Ayers

DEQ's role in cleanup questioned

High court: OK to close hearing on boy who lived with corpse

Auto industry eyeing Miss.

Poultry farms overcharged for gas

Editorials

Language, wording, figures should be worked out in Ayers

Editorials

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

They'll tell if need be

Flag election hasn't sparked registration

Editorial:

Column: Not D'Iberville vs. Keesler

House money man learned legislative lessons in pool hall

Biloxi officials dispute census

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

Burning regulations set for disaster areas

State superintendent urges community involvement

Senator: Tupelo prospective site for plant

Settlement not expected in college desegregation case

Ford still saying wait on budget

Desoto Appeal Desoto, Mississippi

None

Desoto Times Today, Hernando, Mississippi

Governors' Alliance to present opportunities for growth

Why were we at war 140 years ago? Let's be honest, shall we?

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi

Mississippi, Black rivers reach flood stage

Meridian Star, Meridian Mississippi

Emotions color flag debate

Budget shortfalls befall city, state

Striking a blow for open government

Budget games

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Forrest General's policy may violate state regulations

High court settles bill controversy

Vote to change the state flag

Straight talk needed about flag

Legislature makes state look foolish

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi

Editorials for Friday, March 9, 2001

Charlie Mitchell: Predicts rejection of new state flag

Letter to the editor for Friday, March 9, 2001

stateline.org

Mississippi Student Test Scores Fall A Bit

Mississippians Turn To CHIP

US Endangered Species List Faces New Peril

US Census Indicates Growing Racial Diversity

US Census Finds Diversity Spreading To Suburbs