

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Monday, January 28, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

Bills would require school exercise, but can anemic budgets handle it?

Bill seeks special tag after 3 DUIs

Editorials

Voting no to settle Ayers smart vote

Doctors wrong in claiming lawsuits affecting health care

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

Meridian Star Meridian Mississippi

Facts put lie to stereotypes of state workers — Salter

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi

'Open' meetings will require change of heart

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

State must quit playing 'shell game'

Medicaid woes hit the rural areas hardest

Choose Life' tags get Senate approval

Jack Ryan: Lawmakers discuss Ayers deal

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi

MagnoliaReport.com

SoS Clark says time has come for discussion on Voter ID legislation 1

Bill would raise cigarette tax by 25 cents

Bill would require school exercise

Choose Life tag gets Senate approval

Parkway may bear name of Evelyn Gandy

Voting machine plans still up in the air in Hinds County

Quick fix for Medicaid part of Musgrove plan

HUB ED: state, governor must quit playing shell game with budget

Gov Ronnie Musgrove Column: Providing health care, protecting Medicaid a top priority

Sen. Charlie Ross Column: Various tort reform bills 'deserve a fair day in court'

Rep Ed Blackmon Column: Special interests using misinformation in tort reform push

Natchez area legislators react to Musgrove's budget plan

Northeast MS senator battles for new Coast interstate

Coahoma County legislators plan weekend retreat

NATCHEZ ED: 'Financially, our state government is ill...much of the blame for that sits squarely on the shoulders of Gov Ronnie Musgrove'

Federal redistricting hearings begin today

Fair Redistricting: Maps and exhibits to be used in federal trial

HUB ED: Bill would alter Open Records Act, bad idea

Sid Salter: Wall Street Journal may indict MS regarding eminent domain, but WSJ knows well how to take out the little guy in MS

David Hampton: Mississippi ought to be pleased we have a Medicaid deficit
Sid Salter: Prospects dim for state labor department

stateline.org

Mississippi Bill Seeks Special Tag After 3 DUIs

The Clarksdale Press Register

Tort reform, medicaid hot topics at legislative breakfast
Legislative weekend planned for June

The Bolivar Commercial

The Greenwood Commonwealth Greenwood, Mississippi

Sides dig in for tort debate
Medicaid a lifeline for some
Health care in rural areas called vulnerable
Clark makes voter ID overcomplicated

Mississippi Business Journal

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, Tenn.

The New York Times

State Lures Good Jobs, but Companies Worry About Workers
National Briefing

The Washington Post

Miss. Judge Is Latest Focus of Confirmation Fights