

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Thursday, January 3, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

Approval of Ayers settlement depends upon Legislature

Child support numbers disputed

Miss. Guard unit ordered to duty

5 killed in New Year's Day wrecks

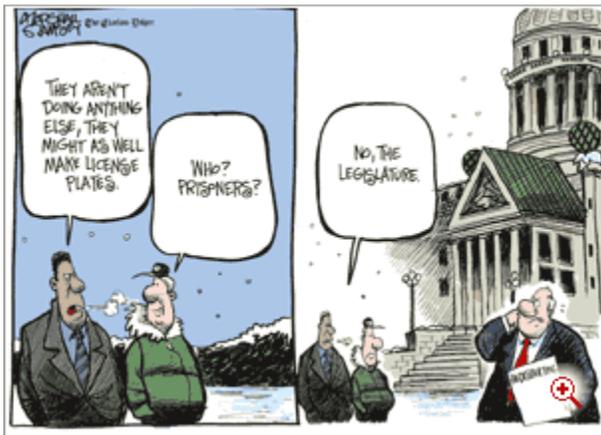

Editorials

Judges: Citizen challenges a pragmatic idea

Accused judge: Moore's concern raises good issue

DHS: Governor should retain authority

China trade: Yankee dollars can bring change

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

Chancery judges jump into new job

Tough times for economic forecasters

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

Howorth sworn in as circuit judge

Musgrove names new circuit court judge

Tax collections subdued in first half of state budget year

State judges find themselves in trouble

Holland's idea -- Legislator wants action on redistricting issue

Meridian Star Meridian Mississippi

• Tax collections subdued in first half of state budget year

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi

Read Our View

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Let governor pick agency head at DHS

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi

Editorials for Thursday, Jan. 3, 2002

Magnolia Report

ED: State lawmakers face serious budget issues

ED: spending a little money would be good investment when it comes to inmates making license plates

ED: respect, not money politics, paramount in justice system

Tim Kalich: Best judicial reform being ignored

The Clarksdale Press Register

The Bolivar Commercial

The Greenwood Commonwealth Greenwood, Mississippi

Judge asks for legislative assurances in Ayers case

DHS could use oversight board

Mississippi Business Journal

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, Tenn.

Judge will approve settlement in desegregation case upon
Miss. legislature request only

The New York Times

'Buddy,' the Clintons' Dog, Dies

Miss. College Rights Case May End

The Washington Post