

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Thursday, January 10, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

'Tired of being broke,' state employees say

Miss. infant mortality, child death rates fall

Bond savings to help budget

Effort aims to keep kids in school

Editorials

Legislators should spend some time on impossible dreams

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

Mum's the word when it comes to Nissan

EDITORIAL: Leave tuition under the control of College Board

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, Tenn.

DeSoto Trade building attitude

State's highway fatalities fell 35% in 2001

Vote on Ayers settlement possible next week

Legislators put best face on term ripe for discord

If lawmakers agree, allowing kids access to Web porn would be felony

Meridian Star Meridian Mississippi

• Lawmakers tackle state budget

• State's economy going nowhere — fast

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi

Burning tobacco fund isn't fix for budget pinch

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

State Legislature's 'quiet start' doesn't impress lawmakers

Report lays out bold plan for our state

stateline.org

Online 'Govs' U' Still Finding Its Place

Michigan Gov. Engler Considers Halt in Tax Cuts

Florida Governor Boosts School Funding

Alabama Governor Urges New Constitution

Mississippi: Federal Trial In '66 Killing Likely

Mississippi Business Journal

Economic Progress in Two Words: Tort Reform

Musgrove: Mississippi needs stable business environment

MBJ Editorial