

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Monday, February 25, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

Governors will have input on alert systems

U.S. 61 put on front burner

College Board makeup at issue

Sunday

Schools costly to insure

Medicaid costs taxing states

It's no dice for courses on gaming

Program provides care for uninsured

Skilled workers a must

Caucus seeking clout with inclusion

Credibility in the courtroom is an issue judges must solve

Saturday

Ridgeland wins land battle

Medicaid quick fix approved

Woman at Lott event questioned

Pelahatchie site picked out for Hyundai if state selected

Editorials

Most powerful man in Miss. politics isn't the governor — Capps: Behind the big cigar

Democrats wanting to retain governorship looking to Moore

Choose life tags legal in Florida

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

Daschle hopeful on campaign finance

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

Source says Musgrove to ax banking bill

Use public money to improve, not abandon, public schools

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, Tenn.

Govs cool to standardized driver license

GROWING ADDICTION TO TOBACCO MONEY

MUSGROVE MUM ON BILL TO LIMIT SUING OF LENDERS

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Meridian Star Meridian Mississippi

Shows believes state court remap will win approval

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi

Medicaid bailout only a step in right direction

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi

Pelahatchie picked if Hyundai comes to Mississippi

Stateline.org

Mississippi Justice System Grinds Slowly

Mississippi Medicaid Cuts OK'd

Mississippi Senate Kills Gaming Courses

Mississippi To Scrutinize College Board Selection Process

The Clarksdale Press Register

Coahoma Agricultural High School feels pinch of state budget crunch

Legislature approves plan to save Medicaid

The Bolivar Commercial

The Greenwood Commonwealth Greenwood, Mississippi

Pelahatchie would be state's Hyundai site

Cities don't need higher sales taxes

Musgrove vetoes damage cap for fraudulent lending

Mississippi Business Journal

Today's News

Magnolia Report

Musgrove mum on whether he'll sign banker's court relief bill

Gov Ronnie Musgrove: Making education a priority demands cooperation

Lt Gov Amy Tuck: Focus on other issues since Ayers resolution reached

Medicaid passes both chambers

DJ ED: Medicaid hangs on

Musgrove to veto bank bill

RollCall: Mississippi Churning, decision comes today

Dems, Shows still not ready to give up

The New York Times

Supreme Court Rejects Appeal on Ten Commandments

The Washington Post