

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Monday, February 11, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

GOP accused of remap sabotage
Judicial code proposals revised
States eyeing ruling on Ayers
Dueling districts puzzle experts
Open government proposals making progress this year
Democrat partisans deserve GOP plan
Controversial bills face major deadline
Ark. wants in Hyundai race
Southern farms face subsidy cuts
Editorials

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

DHS control Governor should retain appointment authority
State budget far from taking shape
LLOYD GRAY: Pickering should be judged in context
DANNY McKENZIE: Ray finally set to take break from education

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, Tenn.

Musgrove opposes Louisiana Indian casino

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Official: Education key to state's future

Meridian Star Meridian Mississippi

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi

Magnoliareport.com

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi

Dems balk at Pickering selection
Editorials for Monday, Feb. 11, 2002

Stateline.org

The Clarksdale Press Register

The Bolivar Commercial

Cleveland district told to tighten up

The Greenwood Commonwealth Greenwood, Mississippi

Anti-crime program may get help
Lott predicts close vote on judicial nominee
Redistricting limbo: Mississippi's one of 13 undecided states
Capitol Hill longevity a plus for state

Bill is proactive on vote disputes

Mississippi Business Journal

The New York Times

As Drug Use Drops in Big Cities, Small Towns Confront Upsurge

The Washington Post