

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Monday, February 18, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

Limiting damages, Medicaid deficit before Legislature

Welfare unequal in child support

View Current Cartoon

Tidelands trust fund use criticized

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

Tort Reform

Election bills eyed to avoid Florida fiasco

Worries aplenty as state agencies' budget cuts take hold

DANNY MCKENZIE: Budget cuts hit hard. Where do we go from here?

LENA MITCHELL: Childhood obesity Why not require P.E. again?

TIM WILDMON: Legislative glamour is just another modern myth

GARY PERILLOUX: Inaction on tort reform dismaying, appalling

JERRY HORTON: Legislation designed to ensure 'No Child Left Behind'

Biggers signs Ayers settlement

Tort reform activists say Legislature failed them

Ayers ends

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, Tenn.

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Area could benefit from road bills

State keeps its title as tort capital

Hub City's sales tax revenues defy state, national trends

Meridian Star Meridian Mississippi

Trial lawyers trump business — again

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi

Senator questions tobacco fund use

Schools feel budget cut's fury

Stateline.org

The Clarksdale Press Register

Medicaid on the legislative agenda this week

The Bolivar Commercial

The Greenwood Commonwealth Greenwood, Mississippi

Tort reform advocates say Legislature failed them

Agencies worried over loss of funds

Senator scrutinizes funds for anti-smoking group

MVSU welcomes judge's decision in Ayers case
Sealant program proposed for schools

Mississippi Business Journal

Magnolia Report

Agencies statewide brace for cuts, fear outcome
MERIDIAN ED: Political bickering
Election bills eyed to avoid Florida fiasco
NAACP urges US Senate to vote against Pickering
DJ ED: Issued deserved action, not chairman's pocket veto
HUB ED: State keeps its title as tort capital
Tort reform advocates say Legislature failed them
Musgrove says tort reform not that important
Stan Tiner: Legislators represent themselves
Tim Kalich: Musgrove no pushover; incumbent will have a lot going for him in 2003
SUN POLNOTEBOOK: Chaney and Moore on Partner$hip; shot-glass wedding;
Wal-Martin'; Book'em
CL POLNOTEBOOK: Reynolds verbose; Musgrove no teddy-fan; Hyundai reverse; Crabs in the House; NWR students disappointed
Musgrove touts Alcoa expansion

The New York Times

The Washington Post