

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Wednesday, February 13, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

Senate OKs Medicaid bailout

Hospital pays state \$13M

Editorial — State budget: Revenue growth 'guess' still a killer

Why tort reform is still DOA at the Legislature

State may penalize Expetel

Constitutionality of justice's dual roles challenged in suit

View Current Cartoon

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

Governor announces \$116 million budget cuts

Medicaid bill passes Senate

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

Medicaid bill passes Senate

State's money situation slows Adequate Education

Four-laning program passes House, Senate

Senate rejects constable/truant officer bill

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, Tenn.

Enron's Lay greets vilifying with 'sadness,' stoic silence

Miss. lawmakers hitting road with 20-year 'Vision' of new four-lane projects

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Senate OKs Medicaid bailout

Officials who steal should go to prison

Meridian Star Meridian Mississippi

If Mississippi is serious ...

Lawmaker wants to preserve Chunky River, Chunky Creek eligible for state scenic streams program

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi

Magnoliareport.com

Musgrove pledges state support for Quitman economy

Constitutionality of justice's dual roles challenged in suit - Waller serves in High Court and National Guard

Constitutionality of justice's dual roles challenged in suit - Waller serves in High Court and National Guard

Senate rejects giving truant officer duties to constables

Shows and cupid, on meeting his wife in 'The Hill'

Mississippi's history haunts Pickering

Eric Stringfellow: Pickering could win the battle but lose the fight

Sid Salter: Ronnie Shows is quiet on Pickering confirmation

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi

Editorials for Wednesday, Feb. 13, 2002

stateline.org

States Compete In E-Learning Programs

The Clarksdale Press Register

Its official! Mississippi 6 is high priority

Pickering critics too selective with the evidence

The Bolivar Commercial

Delta residents like idea of the state toy

JUSTICE: Quality of mercy is not strain'd'_

The Greenwood Commonwealth Greenwood, Mississippi

School budget woes could result in hiring freeze

School district prepares for cuts

Workforce development program facing cuts

Lawmakers realize money isn't there

Mississippi Business Journal

The New York Times

Va. Passes Bill on 'God' Signs

The Washington Post