

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Thursday, February 21, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson, Mississippi

High cost of medicines forcing tough choices

Medicaid fix: Cuts or fees

Relief funds eyed for schools

Justice Dept.: Won't rush map

Tribe to enter new car sales

JMBS Casino to operate Greenville gaming facility

Editorials

Redistricting: Activist 'victory' loss for impartiality

Sun Herald Biloxi, Mississippi

From politics to prayer list to prison slumlord

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo, Mississippi

Money running out for Medicaid

House eyeing money to pad '03 budget

State cotton farmers critical of bill

Mississippi considering tax hike on cigarettes

Redistricting drama -- Actions unfold, but the verdict hasn't come

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, Tenn.

Quick collection may aid budget

Hattiesburg American Hattiesburg, Mississippi

Narcotics bureau gets grant to fight meth problem

State must implement highway bill

Meridian Star Meridian Mississippi

Natchez Democrat Natchez, Mississippi

Enterprise-Journal McComb, Mississippi

Stateline.org

The Clarksdale Press Register
Med supporters rally in Clarksdale

The Bolivar Commercial
Mississippians have good reason to prepare for tornadoes

The Greenwood Commonwealth Greenwood, Mississippi
Bills include pay hike, insurance

Mississippi Business Journal

Magnolia Report
Lott angers White House by keeping Dickie Scruggs info out of the loop
Musgrove blames legislature for education cuts
WAPT: Legislators' allowances may surprise some

Delta Democrat Times Greenville
Governor brings budget message to Greenville
He warned them, but they would not listen.
More of this story
Real welfare reform begins with fiscal accountability

The New York Times
Fight Over Political Map Centers on Race

The Washington Post