

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Wednesday, September 11, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson

Ford: Senate playing politics

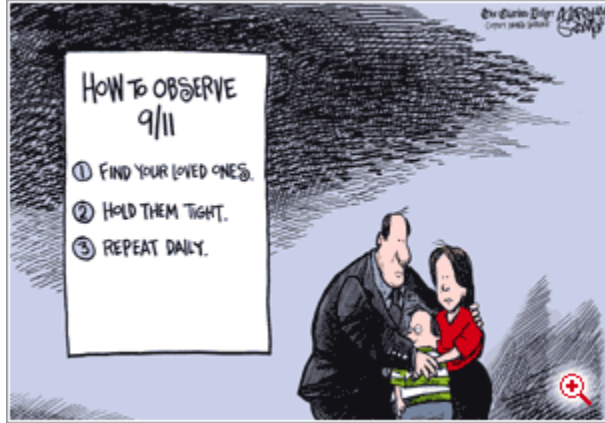

Hog farm air quality permit upheld

Terror alert raised to 2nd-highest level

Editorials

Sept. 11: America will not be cowed by terror

Special session: Public expects action on tort reform

The Sun Herald Biloxi

Speaker: Business killing tort reform

Ford defends House position on civil justice changes

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo

Ford takes center stage on special session

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, TN

Hattiesburg American

Lawmakers fail to break stalemate

Legislature must address 'brain drain'

Meridian Star

Tort reform: In the balance

Laurel Leader-Call

Stalemate continues at Capitol over civil justice reforms

DeSoto Times Today Hernando

The Clarksdale Press Register

House is trying to gut meaningful tort reform

The Bolivar Commercial Cleveland

Enterprise Journal McComb

Day 6 – and no civil justice reform bill

Editorial for Tuesday, Sept. 10, 2002

The Natchez Democrat

Ford has power to pass tort reform this session

The Greenwood Commonwealth

Special session enters sixth day with no civil justice solution

Mississippi Business Journal

Magnolia Report

Bill Minor: A.G. is off base in sniping at Musgrove's authority

Stateline.org

The New York Times

The Washington Post

The Washington Times