

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Saturday-Monday, September 28-30, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson

Time to regroup, rebuild on coast

State jobless rate in Aug. lowest of '02

Show rekindles U.S.-Cuba commerce

40 years later, Ole Miss a different place

Soldiers may finally get medals

Pioneering athletes gained ground — on and off the field

Activists once hated now hailed as heroes

Deaths of journalist, repairman overlooked

'Act of courage' led to other firsts in Mississippi

Bill Minor: Yet hearing different drummer, James Meredith returns to UM

Cotton poison puts kids at risk

Can Miss. land Toyota?

Proposed sites

Mandatory evacuation called good decision

Ashcroft: Corporate scandals threaten U.S. markets

Senator told La.'s oil hub too vulnerable

Editorials

Tort reform: Special interests ruling the roost

Judiciary: Special interests ruling the roost

Tort battle reflects need of life 'reform'

Tort reform crisis is based on greed

Alter state's ineffective Legislature

Elect legislators who will do the job

'Sheep' to shuffle on home with nothing

Will longer terms make better judges?

Tort reform will require that all 'give' a little bit

Special session subjects found 'outside the call'

Gov. Ronnie Musgrove: Crisis in health care can't adjourn; still must be solved

State's toxic paint program threatened

Negotiators return to hammer out tort compromise

Lili could hit Gulf Coast by Friday

Editorials

Tort reform: The U.S. House sends message

DEQ: Charging for permits logical move

Prisoner solution must be long term

Elected officials abuse special sessions by doing nothing

The Sun Herald Biloxi

Musgrove wants federal aid

Weary Coast mopping up

Bridges, roads in county will be checked

MEMA officials try to assess damage

The big decision

Linda Rouse: IN THE EYE OF THE STORM

We gladly pay our dues to live in paradise

Mississippi turns tort law into a tool of extortion

Lily near hurricane strength

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, TN

Jackson-Japan bond is strong

Graphic: All about Jackson, Tenn.

Steering Toyota to the Mid-South

Isidore wets Northeast after drenching South

NCAA won't take actions, Reb AD says

Hattiesburg American

House votes to restrict jury awards

Medicaid officials present streamlined budget to joint legislative committee

Meridian Star

• Stalemate at the Capitol — Cassreino

Laurel Leader-Call

Lawmakers take break from Tort Reform debate

DeSoto Times Today Hernando

DeSoto Countian recalls 1962 Meredith crisis

The Clarksdale Press Register

Is fear driving gun sales in Clarksdale?

Workforce grants to provide training

Fund established for Tyler Prah!

Lattimore charged with murdering Prah!

Statistics aside, crime problem is growing

The Bolivar Commercial Cleveland

Heavy rains could bring a new mosquito influx

The Delta Democrat Times Greenville

Enterprise Journal McComb

Editorial: A death penalty case with plenty of questions

The Natchez Democrat

Can Mississippi solve problem on its own?

The Greenwood Commonwealth

Lawmakers can't hide from failure

Provide teachers with basics

Governor says doctors' problems won't heal themselves

Malpractice crisis not going away

Political scientist predicts lengthy special session

Tort reform: Find cause in order to get cure

Nissan courting workers

Man charged with capital murder in Prahl death

City, county schools get 'Gear Up' funding

Malpractice crisis not going away

Convictions start at WorldCom

Doors now open wide at Ole Miss

Mississippi Business Journal

Magnolia Report

Mississippi Defense Lawyers Association for tort reform 9/29

Drags on 9/29

Paul Gallo SuperTalk Morning Diatribe: The Unspecial Session 9/30

George Will: "In the casino that tort law has become, wild wagers are becoming routine...then there is Mississippi 9/29

TIMESofSoMS: Ballot box best place for tort reform solution 9/28

Sid Salter: Will longer terms make better judges? 9/29

Stateline.org

The New York Times

Isidore Storm Blows Into Mississippi

The Washington Post

The Washington Times