

GOVERNOR'S DAILY NEWS SUMMARY

Friday, September 6, 2002

Clarion Ledger Jackson

House passes $1M pain, suffering cap

Blood link eyed in West Nile case

Spanish flier to warn of West Nile

2nd suit filed against doctors' insurer

Editorials

Special session: Prison inaction prolongs uncertainty

Iraq war?: Bush is struggling to find allies

Juries unfairly blamed in tort 'reform' clash

The Sun Herald Biloxi

House approves $1M cap

Breeding ground?

Senate expected to debate medical malpractice issues Friday

Legislature won't act on private prisons money bill

Northeast Mississippi Daily Journal Tupelo

Medical malpractice bill passes House

West Nile strikes two more area residents

EDITORIAL: House goes part-way on malpractice reforms

The Commercial Appeal Memphis, TN

Miss. House OK's jury cap of $1 million

Hattiesburg American

Clashing groups expected at session

Committee must lower expectations

Officials need to make changes

Lawmakers must enact tort reform

Meridian Star

Local business, medical leaders want civil justice reform

Laurel Leader-Call

Clashing interest groups expected at Capitol

Stateline.org

The Clarksdale Press Register

The Bolivar Commercial Cleveland

Enterprise Journal McComb

The Greenwood Commonwealth

Clashing interest groups expected at Capitol

Closing prison makes poor sense

The Natchez Democrat

Mississippi Business Journal

Magnolia Report

MagnoliaReport.com: House plan no real reform, now Senate's move

The New York Times

The Washington Post

The Washington Times